Man Arrested for DUII after Crashing into House

October 25, 2016 - A Cedar Hills man crashed his car into a house in the community of Bethany. No one was hurt in the incident, but the man was arrested for DUII and other charges.

On Tuesday, October 25, 2016, at about 6:38 p.m., Sheriff's Deputies responded to a crash in the 5100 block of NW Millstone Way in the community of Bethany. A citizen called 911 to report that a car crashed into a house.

Deputies were on scene quickly and contacted the driver of the car, James Mauro, 35, of Cedar Hills. Their investigation led to the arrest of Mr. Mauro for DUII and related charges.

Deputies investigating the crash determined that Mr. Mauro was traveling west on NW Holcomb Drive at a high rate of speed. He attempted to turn north on NW Millstone Way, but was unable to make the turn and crashed into the yard of the house on the corner. The car made minimal contact with house causing a broken window in the crash.

The residents of the house were home at the time, but were not hurt. Mr. Mauro was lone occupant of his vehicle and he was unharmed.

Mr. Mauro was transported to the Washington County Jail and booked on charges of Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants, Reckless Driving, and Criminal Mischief in the Second Degree.
