Aloha Man Found Guilty of Sex Crimes, Additional Victims Sought

February 6, 2017 — a 19-year-old man was convicted of sexually abusing two underage females. Washington County Detectives are seeking additional victims.

In October 2015, Washington County Child Abuse Detectives began an investigation regarding an allegation of sexual abuse by Chandler Osofsky, of Aloha. Mr Osofsky pled guilty to Attempted Sexual Abuse in the First Degree and completed his sentence.

In May 2016, Washington County Sheriff's Deputies were contacted by another underage victim concerning Mr. Osofsky. Both victims were reportedly abused by Mr. Osofsky when he was 15 and they were eight years-old. The girls met him while they were enrolled at Aim High Martial Arts in Beaverton.

On February 3, 2017, Mr. Osofsky was convicted of Attempted Unlawful Sexual Penetration concerning the second victim. He will be sentenced at a later date.

Washington County Child Abuse Detectives are concerned that there may be additional victims. Anyone with information is asked to call (503) 846-2755.
