Case #13-510816

Man Robs Gun Store with Knife and Baseball Bat

July 25, 2013—Sheriff's Deputies arrested a man after he attempted to steal a handgun from a gun store. The store manager utilized his personal handgun to detain the robber until deputies arrived.

On July 25, 2013, at 3:58 p.m., Washington County Sheriff's Deputies responded to a robbery call at Discount Gun Sales located at 8118 SW Beaverton Hillsdale Highway. This is in the community of Raleigh Hills, an area of the Enhanced Sheriff's Patrol District \(ESPD\).

It was reported that a man entered the gun store with a baseball bat and attempted to steal a gun. The store manager called Sheriff's Deputies and reported the man smashed a display case and removed a handgun. The manager said he had his gun pointed at the robber keeping him detained until the deputies arrived.

Upon arriving at the store, Sheriff's Deputies were assisted by Beaverton Police Officers taking Derrick Mosley, 22, from Beaverton, into custody without further incident. They found Mr. Mosley had taken a baseball bat and smashed a large glass display case containing several firearms. Deputies learned that after Mr. Mosley broke the glass, he removed a handgun. Moments later, the manager drew his handgun and began giving Mr. Mosley orders. Derrick Mosley complied and dropped the stolen handgun, baseball bat, and nine inch long knife he was carrying. He laid on the floor until Deputies arrived.

Fortunately, no one was injured in the robbery. It is not known what Mr. Mosley's intentions were once he had the handgun in his possession.

Derrick Mosley was lodged in the Washington County Jail charged with First Degree Robbery, First Degree Theft, Unlawful Possession of a Firearm, and Second Degree Criminal Mischief. He is held on $250,000 bail.
