Deputies Catch Burglar After He Falls From Tree

July 12, 2014 - Washington County Deputies responded to a call from a homeowner who found a man inside his home. The suspect assaulted the homeowner before running from the house. Deputies located the suspect in a tree where he eventually fell and was taken into custody.

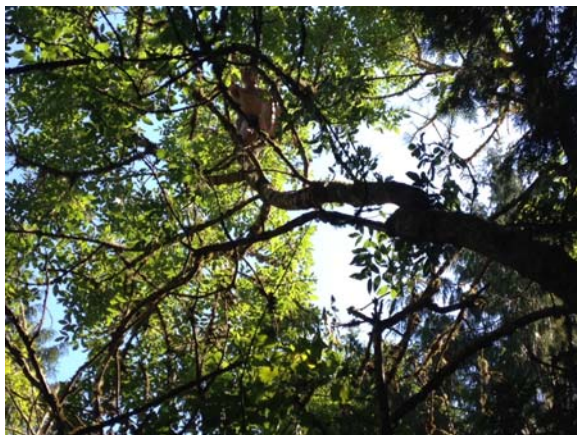

At 2:40 p.m. Deputies responded to SW Pheasant Drive in the community of Aloha on a report of a burglary in progress. Upon arrival deputies learned the suspect fled the scene into a green space behind the home. Deputies tracked the suspect with the assistance of a Sheriff's K9.

After a search of the area, deputies located the suspect in a tree less than a mile from the victim's home. The suspect refused several orders to come down from the tree. Instead he climbed higher until he fell approximately forty feet and sustained minor injuries.

The suspect was taken into custody and later identified as 46-year-old Bret T. Davis with a last known address in Hillsboro. He was transported to the hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

Once cleared at the hospital, Mr. Davis will be transported to the Washington County Jail and charged with Burglary I, Robbery III, Assault IV and Theft II.

The homeowner sustained minor injuries and was treated at the scene.
